Report on the Audit of the Financial StatementsOpinion

We have audited the financial statements of National Endowment for Democracy (the Endowment), which comprise the balance sheet as of September 30, 2023, the related statements of activities, functional expenses and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Endowment as of September 30, 2023, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS) and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States (Government Auditing Standards). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Endowment and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Endowment's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are issued or available to be issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinions. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and, therefore, is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS and Government Auditing Standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations or the override of internal control.

Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS and Government Auditing Standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Endowment's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Endowment's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

Report on Summarized Comparative Information

We have previously audited the Endowment's 2022 financial statements, and we expressed an unmodified audit opinion on those audited financial statements in our report dated February 8, 2023. In our opinion, the summarized comparative information presented herein as of and for the year ended September 30, 2022, is consistent, in all material respects, with the audited financial statements from which it has been derived.

Other Reporting Required by Government Auditing Standards

In accordance with Government Auditing Standards, we have also issued our report dated March 4, 2024, on our consideration of the Endowment's internal control over financial reporting and on our tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts and grant agreements and other matters. The purpose of that report is solely to describe the scope of our testing of internal control over financial reporting and compliance and the results of that testing, and not to provide an opinion on the effectiveness of the Endowment's internal control over financial reporting or on compliance. That report is an integral part of an audit performed in accordance with Government Auditing Standards in considering the Endowment's internal control over financial reporting and compliance.

National Endowment for Democracy

Notes to Financial Statements

Note 1. Nature of Activities and Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of activities: National Endowment for Democracy (the Endowment) is a nonprofit organization based in Washington, D.C. The establishment of the Endowment in 1983 was followed by the National Endowment for Democracy Act (the Act) of the United States Congress, which authorized the terms by which the Endowment could receive an annual appropriation from Congress in the form of a grant awarded through the United States Information Agency (USIA). The purpose of the Endowment is to encourage free and democratic institutions throughout the world through activities that promote individual rights and freedoms. The Endowment awards grants to organizations with programs consistent with its objectives. On October 1, 1999, USIA and the U.S. Department of State (the DOS) consolidated. Accordingly, the Endowment receives funding for its annual congressional appropriation and other special federal funding from the DOS.

With support of the DOS, and funded by its annual appropriation from Congress, the Endowment engaged in an emergency response effort in Afghanistan beginning in August 2021 to evacuate the staff and families of its core institutes and at-risk grantees and other partners and provided them temporary safe haven in third countries. The Endowment continues to provide food and housing assistance while supporting refugee resettlement both in the U.S. and abroad.

A summary of the Endowment's significant accounting policies follows:

Basis of accounting: The financial statements are prepared on the accrual basis of accounting, whereby revenue is recognized when earned and expenses are recognized when incurred. The Endowment reports quarterly to the U.S. government on the basis of grant obligations incurred and accrual-based expenses for democracy support activities.

Basis of presentation: The Endowment is required to report information regarding its financial position and activities according to two classes of net assets: net assets without donor restrictions and net assets with donor restrictions.

Net assets without donor restrictions: Contributions and other inflows of assets whose use is not subject to donor-imposed stipulations.

Net assets with donor restriction: Contributions and other inflows of assets whose use is subject to donor-imposed stipulations that either expire by the passage of time or will be met by actions of the Endowment pursuant to those stipulations, such as usage for specific programs.

Cash: Cash held in investment accounts are considered investments. Money market funds are considered investments.

Financial risk: The Endowment maintains its cash in bank deposit accounts which, at times, may exceed federally insured limits. The Endowment has not experienced any losses in such accounts. The Endowment believes it is not exposed to any significant financial risk on cash.

The Endowment invests in mutual funds. Such investments are exposed to various risks, such as market and credit. Due to the level of risk associated with such investments and the level of uncertainty related to change in the value of such investments, it is at least reasonably possible that changes in risks in the near term could materially affect investment balances and the amounts reported in the financial statements.

Investments: The Endowment's investments consist entirely of mutual funds and equities and are reflected at fair value. To adjust the carrying value of these investments, the change in fair value is included as a component of investment income in the statement of activities.

Grants receivable: Grants receivable are due from DOS and represent unreimbursed funds owed by the Endowment to other organizations and administrative costs incurred by the Endowment. When the Endowment and its grantees incurs expenses, a receivable from DOS and a related grant payable is recorded. In order for the Endowment to subsequently disburse payments for program grants, democracy support activities and general and administrative costs, funding draw requests are submitted directly by the Endowment in the government's electronic payment management system against active authorizations made available by DOS under each specific award. When cash advances are received from the awarding agency, the receivable is reduced. Management does not advance funds for any grants until the funding is approved and thus determined that there is no need for provision for doubtful accounts at September 30, 2023.

Property and equipment: Property and equipment are stated at cost, net of accumulated depreciation. Depreciation is computed using the straight-line methods over the estimated useful lives of the related assets, which range from three to 16 years. The Endowment capitalizes all property and equipment purchased with a cost of $5,000 or more.

Right-of-use asset/liabilities: The Endowment recognizes right-of-use assets and lease liabilities on the balance sheet for all leases with terms longer than 12 months. Right-of-use assets/liabilities are recognized at the lease commencement date based on the present value of the remaining lease payments over the lease term, using a risk-free rate. Leases are classified as either finance or operating, with classification affecting the pattern of expense recognition in the statement of activities. Lease expense is recognized on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease.

Valuation of long-lived assets: The Endowment accounts for the valuation of long-lived assets by reviewing such assets for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable. Recoverability of long-lived assets is measured by a comparison of the carrying amount of the asset to future undiscounted net cash flows expected to be generated by the asset. If such assets are considered to be impaired, the impairment to be recognized is measured by the amount by which the carrying amount of the assets exceeds the estimated fair value of the assets. Assets to be disposed of are reportable at the lower of the carrying amount or fair value, less costs to sell.

Grants payables: Grants payable represent the unliquidated funds due to the Endowment's grantees representing expenses incurred and conditions met. Grantee organizations are entitled to collect funds as needed in accordance with the terms of the grant agreement.

Refundable advances—due to the DOS: Amount represents funds returned to the Endowment by grantees for grants that have been deobligated. Funds are in turn either repaid to the DOS, or otherwise applied against the grants receivable balance and used to fund new grantee funding requests as appropriate.

Support and revenue: The Endowment receives grants from the DOS and private grantors for various purposes. Grants received from the DOS specify the periods in which monies are to be expended. Additionally, certain government grants restrict the use of funds for programs in specific countries or regions. Government grants are generally conditional and, as such, revenue is recognized when conditions are met, which is when the Endowment expends the funds for the intended purpose that is set forth in the grant agreement and for administrative expenses incurred. Revenue from private grantors is recognized as earned in the year received when unconditional.

National Endowment for Democracy

Agreements with the DOS provide for the subsequent audit of costs funded under the grant agreements. It is the policy of the Endowment to provide for cost disallowances based upon its experience in previous grant audits. There was no provision for such disallowance for the year ended September 30, 2023.

Contributions: The Endowment recognizes unconditional gifts of cash and other assets as restricted support if they are received with donor stipulations that limit the use of the donated assets. When a donor restriction expires (that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends or purpose restriction is accomplished), net assets with donor restrictions are reclassified in the statement of activities as net assets released from restrictions. Income on these net assets is classified as with donor restrictions or without donor restrictions, in accordance with the donor's stipulation. The Endowment treats all contributions with donor restrictions that are satisfied within the same fiscal year as activities without donor restrictions for purposes of financial statement presentation. Conditional contributions are those contributions that contain donor-imposed rights of return/refund and barriers (performance obligation and/or controlling stipulations). Conditional contributions are recognized into revenue when conditions are satisfied and then follow the above policies for unconditional contributions. Conditional contributions received in advance of satisfying conditions are recorded as refundable advances.

Use of estimates: The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles (U.S. GAAP) requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Income taxes: The Endowment is organized as a District of Columbia nonprofit corporation and has been recognized by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) as exempt from federal income taxes under Internal Revenue Code (IRC) Section 501(a) as organization described in IRC Section 501(c)(3), qualify for the charitable contribution deduction under IRC Sections 170(b)(1)(A)(vi) and (viii), and has been determined not to be private foundation under IRC Sections 509(a)(1) and (3), respectively. The Endowment is annually required to file a Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax (Form 990) with the IRS. In addition, the Endowment is subject to income tax on net income that is derived from business activities that are unrelated to its exempt purpose. We have determined that the Endowment is not subject to unrelated business income tax and has not filed an Exempt Organization Business Income Tax Return (Form 990-T) with the IRS.

Prior-year information: The financial statements include certain prior-year summarized comparative information in total but not by net asset class. Such information does not include sufficient detail to constitute a presentation in conformity with U.S. GAAP. Accordingly, such information should be read in conjunction with the Endowment's financial statements for the year ended September 30, 2022, from which the summarized information was derived.

Reclassifications: Certain items in the September 30, 2022, summarized comparative information have been reclassified to conform to the September 30, 2023, financial statement presentation. The reclassifications had no effect on the previously reported change in net assets or net assets.

Subsequent events: The Endowment has evaluated subsequent events through March 4, 2024, the date on which the financial statements were available to be issued.

Note 2. Liquidity and Availability of Financial Assets

The Endowment maintains a policy of structuring its financial assets to ensure availability as operational expenses come due. The table below represents financial assets as of September 30, 2023, that are available to fulfill both the Endowment's contractual obligations to its subrecipient grantees as well as requirements for general expenditures to be made over the course of the following year:

Cash	$ 27,733,805
Investments	5,770,862
Grants and other receivables	14,477,697
Total financial assets available	47,982,364

	14,890,835
Financial assets available to meet general expenditures within one year	$ 33,091,529

Note 3. Investments and Fair Value Measurements

The Endowment's investments are measured at fair value and consist almost entirely of amounts invested in mutual funds.

The Fair Value Measurement Topic of the Financial Accounting Standards Board Accounting Standards Codification defines fair value as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date and sets out a fair value hierarchy. The fair value hierarchy gives the highest priority to quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3). Inputs are broadly defined as assumptions market participants would use in pricing an asset or liability.

The three levels of the fair value hierarchy are described below:

Level 1: Quoted market prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2: Observable market-based inputs or unobservable inputs corroborated by market data.

Level 3: Unobservable inputs that are not corroborated by market data.

In determining the appropriate levels, the Endowment performs a detailed analysis of the assets and liabilities that are subject to accounting for fair value measurements. At each reporting period, all assets and liabilities for which the fair value measurement is based on significant unobservable inputs are classified as Level 3. There were no Level 3 inputs for any assets or liabilities held by the Endowment at September 30, 2023.

The Endowment's investments are mainly comprised of mutual funds, domestic equities and publicly traded mutual funds. The fair values of these investments are based on the quoted market price in the active market; therefore, these investments are considered a Level 1 item.

The deferred compensation liability is based on the fair market value of the deferred compensation plan assets that are observable inputs. The liability is not publicly traded and, therefore, is classified as Level 2.

Note 9. Related Parties

The Endowment awards grants to various organizations to be used for programs that the Board of Directors determines are consistent with the purposes of the Act. Some of the organizations that submit proposals and are awarded funds may have members of their Boards of Directors represented on the Board of Directors of the Endowment. Article VI, Section III of the Endowment's bylaws provides that any Board member who is an officer or director of an organization seeking to receive grants from the Endowment must abstain from consideration of and any vote on such a grant. The provision does not prevent any director from supplying factual information that the Board of Directors requests.

Note 10. Leases

In May 2020, the Endowment entered into a noncancellable operating lease that commenced on April 1, 2021, with a lease term through May 31, 2037. The lease for office space includes a provision for rent escalations. The lease expense is recognized on a straight-line basis ratably over the term of the lease.

The Endowment follows Accounting Standards Update (ASU) 2016-02, Leases (Topic 842), resulting in a lease liability and right-of-use asset to be recorded on the balance sheet as of September 30, for the office lease. The lease is considered to be operating leases under the provisions of ASU 2016-02. The Endowment determined at adoption there were no renewal options expected to be exercised and calculated operating lease schedules through May 31, 2037.

No funds were withdrawn from the letter of credit during the year ended September 30, 2023.

Note 11. Retirement Plans

The Endowment has a defined contribution annuity plan for all of its employees, under which the Endowment contributes a percentage of eligible employees' annual earnings to individually owned tax-deferred annuity contracts. The Endowment's contribution to the plan is based on 10% of an eligible employees' annual earnings after the first year of employment. Employer contributions to the plan for the year ended September 30, 2023, amounted to $2,315,455.

In June 2022, the Endowment established a 457(b) plan for executive members of management to defer a limited portion of their compensation on a pre-tax basis. Eligible employees may contribute to this 457(b) plan up to the legal limits defined by the IRS. The employer contributes to the 457(b) plan. Total contribution expense was $88,535 for the year ended September 30, 2023. The value of assets held and the related deferred compensation liability was $116,756 as of September 30, 2023, and is included within prepaid expenses and other assets and accrued expenses, respectively, on the accompanying balance sheet.
